CONNECT WITH THE MESSAGE

Jack Griffiths

Mark 6 v30-52

1) The Apostles returned from a big trip in the passage read on Sunday and they were tired! But when have you been at your most tired?

Read Mark 6v30-52

2) What was the main thing that spoke to you from Jack's message and why?

3) What does verse 34 tell us about the heart of Jesus?

4) Can you think of an experience where you have felt a similar way? What did you do about it?

5) In verses 35-41 we see Jesus perform an amazing miracle. But why do you think this is the only miracle in all 4 gospels?

Read John 6v1-15

6) What additional insight does John provide us with on the miracle of the feeding the 5000?

Read Matt 14v22-32

7) What does Matthew's account teach us about the disciples' response?

8) Have you ever had a similar response to Jesus?

9) How do you think you could respond differently having heard Jack's message?

10) What does Peter's reaction teach us about Jesus?

DIGGING DEEPER

Read Ezekiel 34v1-16

1) Who was Ezekiel writing this to?

2) Who are the Shepherds of Israel?

3) What are the specific sins God held against the shepherds of Israel?

4) What were the consequences of the shepherd's sin and failure to shepherd the people of Israel (34 v5-10)

5) Make a list of all the attributes of a "fat shepherd" and a separate list of all the attributes of God as the Shepherd.

6) As we make a difference here in Lewes, how can we make sure that we act like good shepherds rather than fat ones?

7) What are you doing that is more like a fat shepherd than a good shepherd?

8) How does looking to Jesus as the good shepherd help? And what can you do to change this?
