CONNECT WITH THE MESSAGE

Listen Up!

James 1:18-27

Read James 1:18-27

2) What most stuck in your mind from AI's sermon on Sunday?

3) Has reading the Bible ever made you feel angry? If so, what about?

4) What are the challenges for you in humbly accepting God's Word?

Read Matthew 7:21-29

5) What marks out those who will enjoy eternal life in God's kingdom?

6) What sort of things might make someone falsely assume they are a true disciple of Jesus when they are not?

7) What is the same about the two house builders and what is different?

8) What do you think the storm represents?

9) Are there any words of Jesus, or words of God in the whole Bible, which you're finding hard to put into practice at the moment?

10) Pray about anything that is holding you back and for God's help to be a wise builder obeying what he has said.

DIGGING DEEPER

Read Hebrews 4:1-13

In ch 3, the author wrote about the Israelites, in Moses' time, who failed to make it into the 'rest' of the promised land because they disobeyed God.

- a) What promise of 'rest' stills stands for Christians? (4:1)
- b) In what sense does a person who believes in God enter his rest? (v3)
- c) How does v10 help in understanding this?
- d) What is necessary to enter God's ultimate future eternal rest? (v12)
- e) Why do you think the words of v12 appear here?
- f) What is God's Word in the Bible able to do and show up in our lives when we read it?
- g) How is this similar to James' idea of the mirror? (James 1:22-25)
- h) Have you ever had the experience of God's Word cutting into your life and exposing where you are not obeying God?
- i) Pray you would respond well to the sword of God's Word in your life.
