Easter: What Happened?

John 19:41-20:18

1) What do you like most about Easter?

Read John 19:41-20:18

2) What do you think really happened on the first Easter Sunday? Why?

3) In what ways does your understanding of the first Easter enhance your daily life?

4) What aspects of the Christian faith do you sometimes struggle to believe? Why?

5) How do you handle your own doubts or scepticism (if any) about the Christian faith?

Read 1 Kings 17:7-24

6) What parts of this account do you find hard to imagine/believe? Why?

7) How does this passage encourage you personally?

8) In what ways was the child's 'resurrection' different to Jesus' resurrection? Why?

9) How does this passage allow us to see God's heart for people who are struggling or suffering?

10) In what ways can you also show God's heart towards people who are suffering?

DIGGING DEEPER

Read John 11:1-44

- a) Why do you think Jesus delayed going to visit Lazarus when he heard he was ill?
- b) Why do you think the disciples were unclear as to what Jesus meant and planned to do?
- c) What does Jesus mean by claiming to be "the resurrection of the life"? (v25)
- d) How would you explain Jesus' claims in v25 & v26 in your own words?
- e) Why does Jesus weep?
- f) In what ways was Lazarus' 'resurrection' similar to Jesus' resurrection? How is it different?
- g) How do you personally feel about your own death?
- h) How can this passage shape how you feel about dying?
- i) How would you use this passage to comfort or encourage someone who has lost a loved one?
- j) How does this passage affect how you feel towards Jesus?

CONNECT IN PRAYER

Brussels Attacks

- Pray for families of the 31 people who died and for the recovery of 300 who were injured.
- Pray for the police and security forces, and against further terrorist attacks in Belgium and other countries.
- Pray for all who have been caused to fear, that they would know God's peace as they turn to him.

Easter Follow Up

- Thank God for the many guests who attended our Easter events.
- Pray that each person would find appropriate ways to follow up their interest, whether it's coming on a Sunday or to other events.
- Pray that some would want to further investigate the amazing good news of Jesus and eventually start following him.
