Cast Your Burden

Psalm 55

- 1) What does the bible mean by burden in Psalm 55?
- 2) What type of burdens do people carry in life?
- 3) What do burdens do to us and how can we get relief from them?
- 4) What was David's burden?

5) What does he mean by “Cast it on the Lord?” What does this mean in practice?

6) How do you cast a burden on God?

7) How do you know when your prayer has been answered? Spend time discussing in your groups

8) How important is it to be honest in prayer and why?

9) Is it wrong to share with other people our burdens? Give any scriptures i.e. Galatians 6:2

10) What is God’s promise to those who cast their burden on Him?

Prayer for any who are burdened
Pray for revival

CONNECT IN PRAYER

Barn Dance

- Pray that this new event would be a great success and well attended.
- Pray it would be yet another way to help people make a positive connection with us as a church community.
- Pray for people to come who haven’t been to one of our events before.
- Pray for those running and planning the evening: Al, Abbie, Pete and the band, and everyone helping.

Lewes

- Thank God for our town, its people and the many good things about it.
- Pray for an enjoyable, safe Bonfire Night for all attending & taking part.
- Pray that the many references to Christianity during Bonfire Night, both positive and negative, might prompt some to ask good questions.
- Pray for God to break through into people’s lives in our town and show them their need of Jesus to save them and lead their life as Lord.
