God is Glorified When We Are United

Romans 15:1-13

1) What sort of issues might lead to churches not being united?

Read Romans 15:1-13

2) What do you remember most from Al's message from this passage on Sunday? Why?

3) How could the example of Jesus help you when you are tempted to put yourself first and please yourself?

4) Other than at the cross, in what other ways did Jesus 'not please himself'?

5) What regularly or occasionally stops you from turning to the Bible for God's encouragement, hope and endurance?

6) Do you have any favourite verses which keep you going that you could share with your small group?

7) Where would you go in the Bible to find encouragement when loving and accepting other Christians is difficult? (apart from Romans!)

8) How does it help you to hear (or be reminded) that the church is meant to be a diverse but united people under Jesus?

9) Pray for our church that we would be more united and bring glory to God.

DIGGING DEEPER

Read 1 Chronicles 16:7-36

- 1) How do you think this Psalm points forward to Jesus or what does it mention that was fulfilled by Jesus?
- 2) How does this Psalm give us encouragement, endurance and hope?
- 3) Which phrases refer to God's mission and plan to have a diverse people from all nations?
- 4) Which verses mention God being praised and what are the reasons for this praise?
- 5) How does this Psalm encourage you to work and pray for a united church of all kinds of people giving glory to God?
- 6) Spend some time praying for that.

Romans 15:1-13

1) What sort of issues might lead to churches not being united?

Read Romans 15:1-13

2) What do you remember most from Al's message from this passage on Sunday? Why?

3) How could the example of Jesus help you when you are tempted to put yourself first and please yourself?

4) Other than at the cross, in what other ways did Jesus 'not please himself'?

5) What regularly or occasionally stops you from turning to the Bible for God's encouragement, hope and endurance?

6) Do you have any favourite verses which keep you going that you could share with your small group?

7) Where would you go in the Bible to find encouragement when loving and accepting other Christians is difficult? (apart from Romans!)

8) How does it help you to hear (or be reminded) that the church is meant to be a diverse but united people under Jesus?

9) Pray for our church that we would be more united and bring glory to God.

DIGGING DEEPER

Read 1 Chronicles 16:7-36

- 1) How do you think this Psalm points forward to Jesus or what does it mention that was fulfilled by Jesus?
- 2) How does this Psalm give us encouragement, endurance and hope?
- 3) Which phrases refer to God's mission and plan to have a diverse people from all nations?
- 4) Which verses mention God being praised and what are the reasons for this praise?
- 5) How does this Psalm encourage you to work and pray for a united church of all kinds of people giving glory to God?
- 6) Spend some time praying for that.

God is Glorified When We Are United

Romans 15:1-13

1) What sort of issues might lead to churches not being united?

Read Romans 15:1-13

2) What do you remember most from Al's message from this passage on Sunday? Why?

3) How could the example of Jesus help you when you are tempted to put yourself first and please yourself?

4) Other than at the cross, in what other ways did Jesus 'not please himself'?

5) What regularly or occasionally stops you from turning to the Bible for God's encouragement, hope and endurance?

6) Do you have any favourite verses which keep you going that you could share with your small group?

7) Where would you go in the Bible to find encouragement when loving and accepting other Christians is difficult? (apart from Romans!)

8) How does it help you to hear (or be reminded) that the church is meant to be a diverse but united people under Jesus?

9) Pray for our church that we would be more united and bring glory to God.

DIGGING DEEPER

Read 1 Chronicles 16:7-36

- 1) How do you think this Psalm points forward to Jesus or what does it mention that was fulfilled by Jesus?
- 2) How does this Psalm give us encouragement, endurance and hope?
- 3) Which phrases refer to God's mission and plan to have a diverse people from all nations?
- 4) Which verses mention God being praised and what are the reasons for this praise?
- 5) How does this Psalm encourage you to work and pray for a united church of all kinds of people giving glory to God?
- 6) Spend some time praying for that.

God is Glorified When We Are United

Romans 15:1-13

1) What sort of issues might lead to churches not being united?

Read Romans 15:1-13

2) What do you remember most from Al's message from this passage on Sunday? Why?

3) How could the example of Jesus help you when you are tempted to put yourself first and please yourself?

4) Other than at the cross, in what other ways did Jesus 'not please himself'?

5) What regularly or occasionally stops you from turning to the Bible for God's encouragement, hope and endurance?

6) Do you have any favourite verses which keep you going that you could share with your small group?

7) Where would you go in the Bible to find encouragement when loving and accepting other Christians is difficult? (apart from Romans!)

8) How does it help you to hear (or be reminded) that the church is meant to be a diverse but united people under Jesus?

9) Pray for our church that we would be more united and bring glory to God.

DIGGING DEEPER

Read 1 Chronicles 16:7-36

- 1) How do you think this Psalm points forward to Jesus or what does it mention that was fulfilled by Jesus?
- 2) How does this Psalm give us encouragement, endurance and hope?
- 3) Which phrases refer to God's mission and plan to have a diverse people from all nations?
- 4) Which verses mention God being praised and what are the reasons for this praise?
- 5) How does this Psalm encourage you to work and pray for a united church of all kinds of people giving glory to God?
- 6) Spend some time praying for that.

Romans 15:1-13

1) What sort of issues might lead to churches not being united?

Read Romans 15:1-13

2) What do you remember most from Al's message from this passage on Sunday? Why?

3) How could the example of Jesus help you when you are tempted to put yourself first and please yourself?

4) Other than at the cross, in what other ways did Jesus 'not please himself'?

5) What regularly or occasionally stops you from turning to the Bible for God's encouragement, hope and endurance?

6) Do you have any favourite verses which keep you going that you could share with your small group?

7) Where would you go in the Bible to find encouragement when loving and accepting other Christians is difficult? (apart from Romans!)

8) How does it help you to hear (or be reminded) that the church is meant to be a diverse but united people under Jesus?

9) Pray for our church that we would be more united and bring glory to God.

God is Glorified When We Are United

Romans 15:1-13

1) What sort of issues might lead to churches not being united?

Read Romans 15:1-13

2) What do you remember most from Al's message from this passage on Sunday? Why?

3) How could the example of Jesus help you when you are tempted to put yourself first and please yourself?

4) Other than at the cross, in what other ways did Jesus 'not please himself'?

5) What regularly or occasionally stops you from turning to the Bible for God's encouragement, hope and endurance?

6) Do you have any favourite verses which keep you going that you could share with your small group?

7) Where would you go in the Bible to find encouragement when loving and accepting other Christians is difficult? (apart from Romans!)

8) How does it help you to hear (or be reminded) that the church is meant to be a diverse but united people under Jesus?

9) Pray for our church that we would be more united and bring glory to God.

DIGGING DEEPER

Read 1 Chronicles 16:7-36

- 1) How do you think this Psalm points forward to Jesus or what does it mention that was fulfilled by Jesus?
- 2) How does this Psalm give us encouragement, endurance and hope?
- 3) Which phrases refer to God's mission and plan to have a diverse people from all nations?
- 4) Which verses mention God being praised and what are the reasons for this praise?
- 5) How does this Psalm encourage you to work and pray for a united church of all kinds of people giving glory to God?
- 6) Spend some time praying for that.

God is Glorified When We Are United

Romans 15:1-13

1) What sort of issues might lead to churches not being united?

Read Romans 15:1-13

2) What do you remember most from Al's message from this passage on Sunday? Why?

3) How could the example of Jesus help you when you are tempted to put yourself first and please yourself?

4) Other than at the cross, in what other ways did Jesus 'not please himself'?

5) What regularly or occasionally stops you from turning to the Bible for God's encouragement, hope and endurance?

6) Do you have any favourite verses which keep you going that you could share with your small group?

7) Where would you go in the Bible to find encouragement when loving and accepting other Christians is difficult? (apart from Romans!)

8) How does it help you to hear (or be reminded) that the church is meant to be a diverse but united people under Jesus?

9) Pray for our church that we would be more united and bring glory to God.

DIGGING DEEPER

Read 1 Chronicles 16:7-36

- 1) How do you think this Psalm points forward to Jesus or what does it mention that was fulfilled by Jesus?
- 2) How does this Psalm give us encouragement, endurance and hope?
- 3) Which phrases refer to God's mission and plan to have a diverse people from all nations?
- 4) Which verses mention God being praised and what are the reasons for this praise?
- 5) How does this Psalm encourage you to work and pray for a united church of all kinds of people giving glory to God?
- 6) Spend some time praying for that.

God is Glorified When We Are United

Romans 15:1-13

1) What sort of issues might lead to churches not being united?

Read Romans 15:1-13

2) What do you remember most from Al's message from this passage on Sunday? Why?

3) How could the example of Jesus help you when you are tempted to put yourself first and please yourself?

4) Other than at the cross, in what other ways did Jesus 'not please himself'?

5) What regularly or occasionally stops you from turning to the Bible for God's encouragement, hope and endurance?

6) Do you have any favourite verses which keep you going that you could share with your small group?

7) Where would you go in the Bible to find encouragement when loving and accepting other Christians is difficult? (apart from Romans!)

8) How does it help you to hear (or be reminded) that the church is meant to be a diverse but united people under Jesus?

9) Pray for our church that we would be more united and bring glory to God.

DIGGING DEEPER

Read 1 Chronicles 16:7-36

- 1) How do you think this Psalm points forward to Jesus or what does it mention that was fulfilled by Jesus?
- 2) How does this Psalm give us encouragement, endurance and hope?
- 3) Which phrases refer to God's mission and plan to have a diverse people from all nations?
- 4) Which verses mention God being praised and what are the reasons for this praise?
- 5) How does this Psalm encourage you to work and pray for a united church of all kinds of people giving glory to God?
- 6) Spend some time praying for that.
