CONNECT WITH THE MESSAGE

Give them the Reason

Acts 2:14-41

1) When was the last time someone asked you something about being a Christian, church or God? What happened next?

Read Acts 2:14-41

2) What was particularly helpful or challenging for you in Al's message from Acts on Sunday?

3) What sort of things could prompt a question from someone who isn't a Christian? Is there anything you could do to make questions more frequent?

4) What worries you about questions people might ask? What might be a tricky question and what would you say? (Help one another as you discuss this in your small group)

Read Romans 10:8-17

5) Why do we need to tell people about Jesus?

6) Have you ever brought Jesus into a conversation? What happened?

7) How could you make progress in helping people hear 'the word about Christ'?

8) Do you know anyone who needs challenging to respond to Jesus? What might be holding them back?

9) How does Romans 10:9-10 give us a way of explaining how to respond to Jesus?

10) Pray for opportunities and boldness to give the reason for the hope you have, to speak about Jesus and for anyone you know who needs to make a right response to Jesus.
